

Mogollon Advisor

December 27, 1984—April 25, 1990

Accession Number: 2013.1.64

Processed by: Sandy Carson, January 2013

Volume:

Provenance: Were found in the collection of The Northern Gila County Historical Society, Inc. Archives

Copyright:

Northern Gila County Historical Society, Inc. does not own the copyright for these publications. They may be used for research at the Marguerite Noble Library.

Descriptive Summary

Collection Name: Mogollon Advisor

Creator: Mogollon Advisor Newspaper

Historical Note

The Mogollon Advisor was begun as a free weekly newspaper in 1979 by Carroll Cox and Janet Martin. Ms Cox was the publisher and editor and Ms Martin was business and sales manager. In 1989 the Mogollon Advisor merged with the Payson Roundup, with Ms Cox as the publisher, and was known as the Roundup Advisor for a short time. A non competing clause kept Cox and Martin from starting another newspaper for a time; however on March 3, 1995 the first issue of the Backbone Newspaper appeared. Due to legal issues, they had to suspend publication for another five months.

Scope and Content Note

The newspapers date from 12/27/1989 to 4/25/1990. Some issues are missing.

Access Terms

Container List

A rudimentary index has been created to help find articles in the magazines. The Excel file can be sorted by name, subject or date.

